TCP OPENS SEASON

Tuscaloosa Community Players under the artistic direction of Shelton instructor Paul Looney announces the opening of their annual season ticket sales campaign. Using the theme, 'the secret is out,' TCP is looking forward to their most successful season to date, according to TCP president Nanci Stewart.

Opening the season will be "Annie," scheduled for the Bama Theatre October 27-30. This musical by Thomas Meehan, Charles Strouse and Martin Charnin may prove to be the most popular ever to play in Tuscaloosa, according to Stewart. Ira's Levin's thriller, "Death-trap," will play at the Bama January 12-15 and "Bus Stop" is scheduled for March 1-4. The final production for TCP's 1983-84 season is "The Little Foxes," April 26-29.

Season ticket subscriptions are $15 each and student subscriptions are $10. Other options are TCP angel ($25), Patron ($50), or Sponsor ($100 or more).

Dean Howington is in charge of publicity for TCP this year. If you are interested in helping with any of the productions or in purchasing season tickets, contact his office.

SHELTON TO SPONSOR RETREAT

A retreat for all faculty/staff members of Shelton State Community college will be held at Holly Springs, August 20. The picnic will be sponsored by Educational Talent Search. Activities will begin at 1 p.m. with dinner at 6 p.m. Dinner will consist of barbecue, hamburgers, hot dogs, and "all the trimmings." The faculty staff from the junior college are responsible for bringing desserts while the Fire College and Technical Division will furnish the snacks and hors d'oeuvres. If you have not made reservations and would like to come, contact Tom Umphrey immediately. Children are also included.

THE LIBRARY'S COPY OF THE OCTOBER 1982 ISSUE OF NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC IS MISSING. WE WOULD BE GRATEFUL FOR A DONATION OF THIS ISSUE SO THAT WE CAN HAVE THE 1982 NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIES BOUND.

TECHNICAL TALK

An open house is being planned by the departments of numerical control and drafting at the Technical Division. The date is scheduled for September 23 and 24. Industry from around the state and the Southeast will be invited to view their new "state of the art" equipment. More information will be available later.

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

The Fire College offers training to the volunteer fire departments across the state of Alabama. This is an invaluable service, especially to the rural areas of the state. Dr. Charles L. Payne, president of Bessemer Technical College and past president of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, is a volunteer fireman with the McAdory Fire Department and was trained under this program. The Sipsey Valley Fire Department was also trained by the Fire College and is now building the first underground fire station in the United States to house their fire fighting unit.

ADN GRADUATION

Eighteen students in Shelton State's first Associate Degree in Nursing class will participate in graduation exercises on Thursday, September 1, at 7 p.m. in the Fire College auditorium.

Dr. Martha Bishop Hearn, Dean of the School of Nursing, Samford University, will be the keynote speaker for the evening, according to Mary Ann Pearson, director of Shelton's nursing department.

Graduates include: Deborah Smith, Gordo; Tina Sudduth, Northport; Elaine Ramsey, Northport; Donna Cooley, Alberta; Phyllis Caudill, Cottontale; Janice Mullins, Northport; Dottie Cockrell, Tuscaloosa; Joyce Montgomery, Gordo; Linda Prescott, Reform; Linda O'Rourke, Tuscaloosa; Doris Morgan, Tuscaloosa; Bettye Williams, Tuscaloosa; Betty Kreon, Tuscaloosa; Brenda Davis, Northport; Annette Krebs, Northport; Chris Tidwell, Tuscaloosa.

ANNIE AUDITIONS SCHEDULED

Auditions for all part in "Annie," the popular musical scheduled for production by the Tuscaloosa Community Players this fall, will be held between now and Labor Day. Children between the ages of 9-12 may audition for the part of Annie and her friends at the orphanage on: August 26, 6 p.m.; August 27, 10-4 p.m. and 6 p.m.; and August 28, 2-5 p.m. Children must bring a prepared song as well as clothes suitable for dancing. Auditions will be held in Shelton's auditorium.

Auditions for the adult roles in "Annie" will be held on Thursday & Friday, September 1 and 2, at Shelton State at 7 p.m. Anyone auditioning for the parts must be prepared to sing and dance.

Annie's dog Sandy will also be selected through open auditions which will be held at center court at University Mall on Wednesday, August 31, at 7 p.m. The dog selected for the part must be medium size and on a leash. The owner of the dog must be prepared to show the dog.

SHELTON STATE STUDENTS WITH AN ACT CARD MAY PLAY GOLF AT THE HARRY PRITCHETT GOLF COURSE FOR THE STUDENT PRICE AND MAY ALSO BORROW GOLF CLUBS WITH WHICH TO PLAY.

SATURDAY CLASSES

Saturday classes will again be offered this quarter. Subjects scheduled to be taught include shorthand, typing, business law, biology, economics, engineering drawing, human growth and development, psychology, English skills, English composition, math skills, and life skills.

Classes will meet from 8 a.m. - 12:15 p.m. with labs in the afternoons. Students may pre-register August 17-19 from 9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Students may also register on September 6 or the first day of Saturday classes, September 10.
